LELIEVRE

PAIVA - NATTIER *

1573-01

Thérèse LACHMAN had a town house built and decorated by the architect MANGUIN at 25 avenue des Champs Elysées. It is one of the most famous examples of a style referred to as "Cocotte" (French for "tart") and Napoleon III would have attended some of the parties held there. The PAIVA lampas in the "Patrimoine" collection was executed according to an original Tassinari & Chatel archive. A Renaissance inspired design of extravagant flowers, linked by fine twisting stems with leaves, on a geometric background.

TECHNICAL DATA Composition Silk 57% - Cotton 43 Width Repeat cut N Vertical repeat Drop match Care Silk 57% - Cotton 43 N N Expect Cut N N Silk 57% - Cotton 43 N N N N Silk 57% - Cotton 43 N N N N Silk 57% - Cotton 43 N N N Silk 57% - Cotton 43 N N N Silk 57% - Cotton 43 N	Collection	PATRIMOINE
Composition Silk 57% - Cotton 43 Width Repeat cut N Vertical repeat Drop match Care Uses Weight / Linear Silk 57% - Cotton 43	Brand	TASSINARI & CHATEL
Width 130 cr Repeat cut N Vertical repeat 85 cr Drop match N Care X A P Uses P Weight / Linear 320	TECHNICAL DATA
Repeat cut Vertical repeat 85 cr Drop match Care Uses Weight / Linear N 85 cr 85 cr	Composition	Silk 57% - Cotton 43%
Vertical repeat 85 cr Drop match N Care X A P Uses Weight / Linear 320	Width	130 cm
Drop match Care Uses Weight / Linear Solvential State of the control of the c	Repeat cut	No
Care Uses Weight / Linear 320	Vertical repeat	85 cm
Uses Building State Stat	Drop match	No
Weight / Linear 320	Care
	Uses
	•	320 g

Available colours

1573-01 PAIVA - NATTIER

1573-02 PAIVA - BIS

1573-03 PAIVA - JAUNE ***

1573-04 PAIVA - RUBIS *

1573-06 PAIVA - TAUPE FONCE

1573-07 PAIVA - NOIR

PAIVA - NATTIER *

1573-01

