

MAINTENON – FLAMBOYANT

1702-01

A typical Louis XIV composition from the end of his reign, this brocade represents a pineapple design with an abundance of foliage. The gold threads are interpreted by crimped threads with metallic reflections. Like marquetry work, the composition unveils a palette of tiny motifs in a variety of geometric shapes. These shapes can be woven by special request to match this flamboyant motif. A single ruby red and gold option, typical of 17th century colours.
