MONCEAU - PRUNE

1703-01

A silk and linen brocatelle made using a high-relief velvet from the Neo Regency era of the 19th century. With its fluting, lush foliage and structured details, this brocatelle evokes the decorative arts at the end of the 19th century in the sumptuous townhouses that were built in Haussmann 's new Paris, especially around Parc Monceau. This fabric is available in the following colourways: plum, blue and champagne.
