The floral indienne LÉONIE, inspired by a 1795 archive from Maison Lelièvre, features stylised floral and exotic fruit patterns on a beautiful cotton poplin, reflecting Europeans' fascination with exoticism at the end of the 18th century. Combining a classic style with a modern touch, its elegance and the harmony of its colours bring refinement and freshness to any interior. Once favoured by the nobility in intimate spaces, this iconic piece invites a rediscovery of the beauty of floral indiennes, those light fabrics that brighten homes with their ornamental botanical designs.
