LELIEVRE
PARIS

Tapestry has become a strong medium of expression for the Lelièvre studio. This season, it takes the form of a wild and precious herbarium, a botanical garden whose essences have been carefully selected by Lelièvre Paris. Mediterranean plants flourish on cotton weave with bright colours, ennobled by touches of golden thread that give life and sun to the garden in which we would like to wander... This original creation embodies the lively and fresh tone of this collection.
