

LES DORMEURS - NOIR

6469-03

Composition of several drawings of sleepers, including Raymond Radiguet in 1922, this all-over motif is printed as a monochrome toile de Jouy. The toile de Jouy represents traditional everyday scenes, Les Dormeurs suggesting a languorous daily life, of which Jean Cocteau was adept. He said Dreams are the literature of sleep . This wallpaper is printed in rotogravure on a vinyl embossed master canvas print, matte finish.
