La Croisière S'amuse

La Croisière s'amuse

«La Croisière s'amuse» is a new retrospective of Jean Paul Gaultier's Haute Couture collections. With or without stopovers, we sail from the music room with its satin-finish bas-reliefs, to the rest room with its «classic» stripes blooming in an Ikat version, via Java where we find the «tattoo» spirit so dear to Jean Paul Gaultier.

With India, the Croisière sets sail from India to present an incredible trompe l'oeil embroidery of jewels, offering a show as rich for the eyes as it is for the touch. After an excursion to Santorini, Tahitian girls and butterflies in cheerful primary colours take us to the islands...

Bon voyage !

INDIA
3611

Incredible embroidery for a jewel-like effect. With its density, multitude of colours, fine stitches and relief, this embroidery, woven on satin cotton, offers a spectacle as rich for the eyes as it is for the touch. With India, the Croisière is casting off for India.

SANTORIN
3617

A play of fading nets for this fabric woven in our manufacture (EPV - Living Heritage Company). This pattern, with its torn fishnet effect, suggests different interpretations. Whether animal, reptile or fishnet, the textile is brought to life through the eyes of the observer. Available in six natural colours, the range is fresh and lively, with a summery touch.
